FALLISH FORECAST: Cool, with slightly rising temperatures in view for tonight and Friday and going up. Better wear a coat as well as your college colors for the opening game Friday night or Saturday, just in case. Sunshine expected to be a little thinner from 4:29 p. m. Tuesday when Autumn makes its official bow.

Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard ....

Harry says: The old saw about a change being as good as a rest has a natural inception. Mother Nature sees to that. With diligent regularity she brings us four yearly changes of scene and season This week she ushers in for preview her fall dress. . . . and frankly we like it! Not that we like summer less, but that feeling that comes with change seems to add a spark and a verve to living not found through any other channel. It's probably akin to the pschycology that compels a woman to buy another new hat—with 15 or 20 tucked neatly away on closet shelves. So welcome, Autumn! Welcome to our Valley.

Congratulations to Paul Sutcliffe who defeated Ray Fish this week in the men's singles final of the local tennis matches—a well played match, somewhat closer than the 6-4, 6-1 score indicates.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Coombs, daughters Janet and Connie, and son Del, arrived at their home on Elden Drive Sept. 8 after a motor trip across the entire country.

They were gone some two and a half months, drove nearly 11,000 miles and visited dozens of the world's show places on the way.

Mr. Coombs shot colored motion pictures of the trip, and so has first-hand views of Crater Lake, Yellowstone, the Dakota Black Hills, Greenfield Village (Ford's museum, Dearborn, Mich.), Mackinac Straights, Niagara Falls, Hudson river, New York and points to the southward. The Coombs host Campbell's annual Halloween party for the youngsters, so they need no introduction to readers of The Press.

Compulsory driver education for Campbell Union high school students should take some of the friction out of that well-worn question—"Dad, can I have the car tonight?"

We note with pride that Campbell is one of three Northern California schools to offer actual driving experience under the supervision of cool-headed instructors. This is the kind of practical accident prevention that ought to reduce the number of arrests Judge Blaine is talking about in today's Press.

Excuse that giggle, please, dear reader who called about our spelling last week.

Despite years of wrestling with Webster Unabridged, there are still hundreds of words in this glorious English language that resist our mastery. Plainly speaking, my spelling is on the shaky side and has been the butt of merriment for years. Honest, I do look up every word I'm not sure of. Trouble is, some words I think I know how to spell—used 'em for years—and then discover I've been wrong all that time.

So—allow a little for typos (the linotype drops the wrong letter occasionally)—then phone or write me when I misspell your favorite name or word and I'll make amends—that's a promise.

Campbellites Move To Redwood Country

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler and children moved to Garberville early this week from their home in Campbell.

Mr. Wheeler, former owner of Orchard City Creamery here, is in charge of maintenance and will drive the school bus at Garberville school, on the Redwood high way.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Strickland and their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James Ashby, are occupying the Wheeler home here, which was bought by the Strickland family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Strickland are the parents of Mrs. Ray Strong, Rincon Avenue, Campbell.

Mr. Wheeler, who served as a director of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Wheeler were active members of Campbell Baptist church. They were entertained at a series of farwell parties before their departure, including a luncheon for 20 given in Mrs. Wheeler's honor and a smaller luncheon given by Mrs. E.F. Ballot, Mrs. Ethan Lanphear and Mrs. Ben Austin.

Appliance Store Victimized In Radio Theft

Burnett's local appliance and radio shop, were the victims of a cleverly arranged scheme in the Tuesday afternoon theft of an $80 portable radio.

Mrs. Burnett, alone in the store during the afternoon, greeted three Mexican customers who wanted to hear some records of Spanish music. Two of the men, well-dressed and quiet appearing, engaged her in a discussion of the records while the third wandered to the front of the store, ostensibly to look at the appliances.

Suddenly one of the two Mrs. Burnett was talking to, turned to his companion and spoke to him in Spanish. The man in the front of the store had disappeared, along with a small radio which was not missed at the time. The two told Mrs. Burnett they were going next door for groceries and would return to take the records. Within five minutes the radio was missed. A search up and down the main street and in several stores failed to disclose any sign of the men.

Hunt Foods Closes; Campbell Canning Co. Packs Tomatoes

Hunt Foods, Inc., ceased operations Tuesday following a successful packing season, according to Frank Silva, superintendent of the plant. This year saw a normal pack for the first time since 1941, and the canning schedule is now operating a pre-war season.

A small force of approximately 40 persons will remain at the plant to finish cleaning up, repairing machinery and to ship the packed fruit. Silva stated that during the winter it was hoped that cherry canning machinery could be insalled, which would enable the Campbell plant to open in the May Cherry season. This operartion has not been done before in the local plant.

While the Hunt Foods plant was closing down, the Campbell Canning company was busy packing tomatoes, according to Joe Sunseri, operating manager. Two shifts are being employed at the plant, with approximately 60 persons packing the tomatoes. The operation got under way August 25 and is expected to continue until frost or heavy rains spoil the tomatoes, in late Oetober or November.

FATHER HUBBARD

The Rev. Bernard J. Hubbard will deliver a public lecure September 26 in the University of Santa Clara auditorium. This will be the only lecture Father Hubbard will give in this area and it will be accompanied by motion pictures taken by him on his recent world tour.

Housing Problem Hits Bees, Too!

Dislodged from their former home in the Methodist church, hundreds of honey bees moved into Campbell Hardware store's display window Monday and Tuesday.

Buzzing with indignation, the bees left the church when shingles were scaled off and as a brand new set was nailed in place by roofers working there this week.

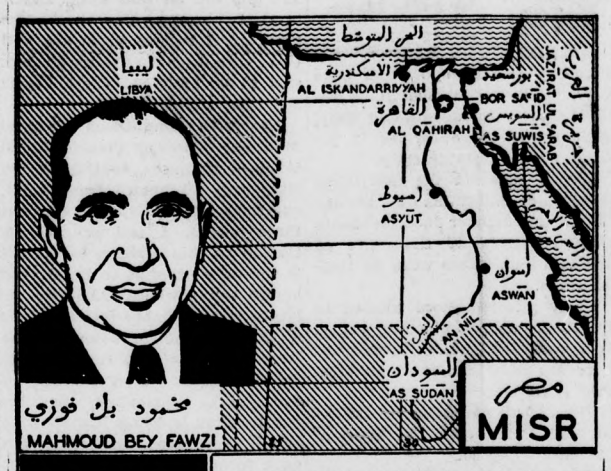
Untroubled by priorities, ceiling prices, contracts or down payments, the honeymakers headed for the hardware store and took over, undisputed, the display of farm and household implements.

But they are due for eviction troubles there,too. The store is looking for someone to put the bees on.

It's a honey of a proposition if you happen to be equipped with bee-hives.

Have you a home for some bees?

U.N. Facts and Faces . . . . . EGYPT



The Kingdom of Egypt, occupying the Nile Valley—cradle of civilization in northeast Africa—is 386,000 square miles in area and has a population of about 17,500,000. Egypt borders on the Mediterranean in the north, the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan in the south, Libya in the west and the Red Sea in the east. The irrigated lands around the Nile Valley, which has been cultivated since the dawn of history, are rich with silt and produce a variety of agricultural crops, with cotton an outstanding export. Ancient Cairo is Egypt's capital and her King is Faruk I. Egypt is a member of the U.N. General Assembly and is represented at U.N. Headquarters by Mahmoud Hassan Pasha. Her flag is green, bearing a white crescent and three white stars.

SPRAGIA HEARING IS SET FOR SATURDAY MORNING HERE

Pete Spragia, owner of the Cozy Cafe, 29 E. Campbell Ave., has been ordered to appear before Judge John D. Blaine at 10 a.m. Saturday for a hearing on violation of the state slot machine ordinances.

Spragia was arrested last Saturday evening by C.A. Hoy, a roving special investigator for Attorney General Fred N. Howser. He was accompanied on the raid by a representative of Sheriff Howard Hornbuckle's office.

Hoy, after a light repast in the local restaurant, paid his check and turned to the console type slot machine, depositing a coin. The machine rolled to the pay position and Hoy asked for his winnings of fifty cents. Mr. Spragia paid the amount and then gia paid the amount, it is alleged, and then was notified he was under arrest. He was taken immediately to the county jail where, under an unusual procedure, bail of $200 was set for the offense.

WITHOUT PRECEDENT

According to legal authorities, the method of handling this case, and the subsequent misunderstanding of those involved, is without parallel, Hoy, it would appear, came to Santa Clara county on special orders of Attorney General Howser, from the Los Angeles area. He made a series of 4 raids and arrests in this district, all of minor character. On his first appearance in San Jose he requested the aid of Sheriff Hornbuckle. His credentials, however, were not authoritative enough for the sheriff's office and he was asked to have them clarlfied. He returned to Hornbuckle's office after a three day absence with written orders from Howser's office. Sheriff Hornbuckle then assigned a deputy to go about the county with the special investigator.

When Spragia was taken to the county jail he was asked to deposit cash bail of $200. He was held in custody until his wife in Campbell could be notified to come to the jail with the money.

The unusual method employed by the Attorney General's investigator in closing his part of the arrest has caused wonderment in legal circles. No complaint was filed at the time, or immediately following the arrest, although someone, upon accepting the $200 bail money set the case for hearing in Judge Blaines' court in Campbell for 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 15. Judge Blaine was not apprised of the case, nor was he made aware of it until Tuesday, September 16, at about 11 o'clock in the morning. It seems that Hoy was unfamiliar with the legal technicalities of swearing to a complaint until notified by the sheriff's office that that was the customary procedure, as provided by the statutes of the State of California.

Upon learning of the correct procedure following an arrest, Hoy attended to the details and departed for San Francisco.

AAA Manager Addresses C Of C

Campbell Chamber of Commerce members heard a discussion of current motor traffic probems and their solution at luncheon Wednesday in Library hall.

Melville B. Duffey, manager of California State Automobile Association, San Jose, who addressed the meeting, called provision of parking facilities a necessity of heatlhy business and of sound community property values.

He described the new standardized highway signs and told of the AAA's part in securing them for this and other communities.

The speaker praised Campbell schools for their part in pioneering practical driver education, which he termed "the solution of our present traffic accident problem."

A. .M Conley, Chamber of Commerce vice president, presided. During the business meeting, members held a preliminary discussion of Christmas decorations for Campbell streets, and of a magic show to be sponsored in the near future.

Adult Education Classes To Start Here September 25

The first class under the adult education program will get under way Thursday, Sept. 25, according to Supt. Laurance J. Hill, Campbell Union high school. The class, under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Roberts, will be in clothing and millinery. Hours will be from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., instruction to be given in Room 15. Approximately 20 persons are expected to enroll in the course which will meet every Thursday.

Other classes in adult education will be formed as needed. Any group of nine or more is eligible to ask for class instruction in any subject.

Woodworking, commerical classes, and instruction on income tax returns are especially popular. The adult education program in the Campbell area is not on an administrative basis, and classes are formed only as requested. Registration for the adult classes is carried on in the classroom.

Ainsley Corp. Completing 14 Homes For G.I.'s

Fourteen houses are nearing completion on Hawthorne street, which will sell for $8500 under a G. I. loan, according to W. N. Lloyd, president of the Ainsley corporation which is building the homes. The houses, which have two bedrooms, are on lots 50 by 124 feet, and are being constructed of dried timber.

O. C. Jensen is contractor for the project. A market and two stores to consist of 6000 square feet are also being constructed by the corporation at Foote and Campbell and this project is expected to be completed in approximately three months. A parking lot will adjoin the shopping area.

Lloyd stated that the Ainsley Corporation has also completed homes on Maple and Popular avenues.

Rev. Kennelly Will Be First Pastor Of St. Lucy's

Rev. Denis Kennelly will be installed as pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic church of Campbell at a 9 a.m. Mass Sunday, Sept. 21.

Msgr. Edward Maher of San Jose will officiate at the formal ceremonies.

Owing to the large increase of Campbell's population and that of its surrounding districts, Archbishop John J. Mitty of San Francisco has deemed it necsesary to establish St. Lucy's as a separate parish and has appointed Father Kennelly to care for the spiritual needs of its people.

The church is situated on the corner of South 3rd street and Rincon avenue. Hitherto it has been a mission of St. Martin's Catholic served by Rev. Jeremiah Ryan, church, Burbank, and has been pastor.

Lexington Dam Proposal Discussed By Pros And Cons

Voters in the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation district will vote October 7 on a bond issue for the proposed Lexington Dam.

Lexington Dam, which is proposed to be constructed on the Los Gatos creek just north of the old town of Lexington, will impound 25,000 acre-feet of flood waters which normally have run off into the bay. Because of the series of especially dry years which this area has experienced recently and can expect to continue to experience for a few more years in the natural cycle of wet and dry seasons, the construction of a reservoir to impound available waters is deemed advisable by the conservation district, because of the lowered water level throughout the valley.

The 1947 Legislature passed a bill during the last session which appropriated $2,475,000 to the division of highways to move the section of the Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway which passes through the northwesterly side of the proposed reservoir and through the damsite. This money will be used if the people of the district vote bonds for their share of the dam in the October elecion.

The proposed Lexington Dam will be of the rolled earth fill type and will be about 175 feet high. The top width will be approximately 50 feet and the maximum thickness through the base will be about 1200 feet. The upstream face will be paved with reinforced concrete to prevent wave wash.

A concrete lined spillway will be constructed near the west end of the dam, the spillway being large enough to carry the largest flood to be expected on the Los Gatos creek.

MARKET OPERATOR LOSES RECEIPTS OF SATURDAY BUSINESS

Last Saturday's receipts of the Pepper Tree Market, at the corner of Union and Los Gatos highway, were lost to a sneak thief who removed Mrs. Harvey Sheeder's purse from her car as she dozed.

After closing the store on Saturday night, Mr .and Mrs. Sheeder stopped for a late supper at a tavern on the highway. Mrs. Sheeder returned to the car alone, and waited for her husband who was engaged in conversation with a friend. Tired from the day's work, she dropped off to sleep momentarily. A few moments later, when Mr. Sheeder entered the car, they noticed the purse, containing about $1100 in cash and checks, was missing. Stop payment was ordered on all the checks, which represented about half the loss.

A search of a nearby orchard disclosed that the thief had dropped Mrs. Sheeder's coin purse, containing a bout $40 of her personal money. Insurance investigators and sheriff's office aides are working on the case.

(Another reason for better police protection).

Lid Comes Off Post-War Football

Friday night the lid comes off—for the first time in five years, football coaches the nation over place their wares on top of the counter for public acceptance or disapproval.

The brawn and muscle boys are back from the was, and rarin' to go. College enrollment has reached an all-time high. Fit as fiddles, the boys who play the game for fun, glory, tuition and—to use a country term, "found"—are set for the season beginning Friday night and extending until Bowl Day, 1948.

SPARTANS VS. DONS

In this immediate area, the spotlight is on the U.S.F. Dons who visit San Jose State here Friday night. The game, the sixth between the two schools, is expected to produce some wide-open football marked by tricky open-field and side line stepping. If little Forrest Hall gets into the game for the Dons the customers can look for some "scared rabbit" stepping. The mighty mite was the nation's leading ground-gainer on kick-off returns last season. He should be equally as effective this year with a hard-blocking crew of very earnest footballers backing him up. The records for the five previous games place the Spartans in the win column twice and the Dons three times. Look for a bang-up game in this debut.

SANTA CLARA-CALIFORNIA

Up Strawberry canyon way, in the Berkeley hills, our Santa Clara Broncs take on a heavier, more experienced team in Lynn Waldorf s aggregation. This being Waldorf's debut into coast football, he is out to win this one. The California Student Body Association, who are heavy-handed in their treatment of head coaches, picked Waldorf from Northwestern's Big Nine as a winner. They took plenty of time in their selection and feel that Waldorf as well as their 1947 team is marked for the win column this year.

Great gobs of silence has come from the publicity staff at Santa Clara, so about all we know of this year's Broncs is what we read in the papers. Len Casanova, however, likes to win as well as the next man, and we predict a hard-fighting aggregation to emerge from the silences of the Mission School. Always a colorful team, with plenty of spark and fire to their plays, they should give California a tussle and extend them every bit of the way. Look for this one in the air-lanes. Casanova has several good passers and receivers. The chances are the game will be played more upstairs than on th ground where Cal is a stand-out with heavy defense men.

Game time is 2:30 p.m. at California Stadium, Berkeley.

Appeal For Aid In Finding Purse

Money is no object in this search for a missing purse.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown, General Delivery, Campbell, appealed this week to the Press for aid in finding Mrs. Brown's billfold, lost the week of August 28 in or near the Campbell Theater.

Although the wallet contained a small amount of money, the Browns are more concerned about a passport, marriage license and other important papers it held.

Mrs. Brown is a Mexican national and is required to carry her passport at all times.

Her billfold is of dark green leather, handsewn, with leather thongs. The young couple asked that the finder return it to them by mail of leave it at The Press office.

Reports on Great Council business were given by Irene Hodges and Sharon Parker and Mrs. Hodges and Blanche Gilpatrick were appointed to the children's welfare committee. Netops members on tht escort team are Mrs. Hodges, Veda Foldon, Berha Hindle, Ella Whittker, Inez Means and Sharon Parker.

Helen Haller was introduced as a new member. Eilene Worth was reported ill at home.

Netops sewing circle resumes its meetings at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Blanche Gilpatrick. A pastry sale is scheduled for September 27, and November 14 is set for the date of a dinner in honor of Laura Sporeleader.

Mr. and rs. Perry, who have moved to Campbell, were visitors of the council. They are members of Mistallija Council No. 16 of Avanel.

CAMPBELL UNION ENROLLMENT INCREASED BY 200 NEW PUPILS

Enrollment of some 791 students in Campbell Union High school this week increased by 120 pupils the average enrollment of last year.

The number of pupils entering this fall is 200 more than began classes in September, 1946, and Laurance J. Hill, principal, looks for a further increase during the current term.

Classes will average 28 to 30 pupils, Mr. Hill said.

Fifty boys have already turned out for football practice and are diligently workig out afternoons under the direction of Coach Arthur G .Swenson. The first game is scheduled for October 3 with Carmel high school at Carmel.

Driver education and instruction will take on a new interest this year with the addition of a dual conrol car, which was obtained through the American Automobile Association. Millard Hughes has charge of the driver education class, which is a required course, and will include reaction and braking distances, road and weather conditions and their effect on driving speed, parts of the car and their condition as related to safe driving, road laws, signals and road markings.

The second part of the driving education program will incude actual driving instruction. A permit from the student's parents is necessary before the student may actually drive the car. All driving instruction will be given on the high school grounds.

Campbell is one of three northern California high schools receiving cars.

Free Chest X-Rays Show Use of Co. Xmas Seal Funds

Development and spread of tuberculosis and how it can be bdought under control is the main theme of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association's exhibit at the County Fair this week. A special illuminated panel depicting basic facts about the disease both in English and Spanish is an added feature.

Saturday afternoon and evening, September 20, the associations' chest X-ray trailer will be open to the public at the end of the main Fairway. Readers' Opinions

To The Campbell Press:

In connection with building activities in and near Campbell, I would like to add the following facts about new housing in the outskirts of the Campbell district:

A large subdivision comprising 72 lots, known as Pamlar avenue, is in operation on San Jose-Los Gatos Road, with laterals towards Hamilton avenue. Here 29 homes have been built or are building, all in the higher bracket. That is, $10,000 or more.

Next aong S. J.-L. G. road is Ridgeley avenue, running east near Campbell avenue. It contains 36 lots, with 18 houses finished or being constructed. Fewtrell Drive adjoins with 36 lots and 27 houses built or building. Next comes Campbell Gardens—a new sub-di- along towards Los Gatos is El Solvision recently opened. Further yo, with 31 lots and 11 homes built or building. All these are also in Further along we come to North Union. Some distance down we find Herring and Charmeran avenues; 198 lots are on this tract, and it is mostly built up and the houses occupied. I believe there are still two vacant, and about 40 lots still to be built on. These homes sell for about $10,00.

Nearer to Campbell on the same road are Chelsea, Stratford and Goodard avenues containing 200 lots, with 40 homes being built, and some being completed in about three weeks. I call special attention to this division because it is the only attempt to build good homes for workers. Alhough the lots measure 60x140 feet and it is a very attractive homesite, the houses will be sold for $7250 to $8500. They are being erected under F.H.A. restrictions, and the construction is being inspected by three separate inspectors—one each from FHA, the county building inspector's office, and the finance corporation. Various contractors are doing the building, so there will be various types of architecture. It is expected that the remainder will be started soon.

Again nearer Campbell is another sub division, upon which no building is commenced at present.

Casey Road, which runs from Los Gatos Road to Santa Clara-L.G. road across the creek, contains several new homes, about 20. Near the Cambrian school are Salern Drive containing about 36 lots and seven houses built or building; Normandy Drive, 36 lots, five houses; Erin Way, 36 lots and nine homes. Then there are many nine homes in the San Tomas area.

In all, there are more than 1000 new homes built, building or will be built in the near future.

GEO. E. ARLIDGE.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

Campbell has the name of being a county trouble spot, and once a year a report to the State Judicial Council, a fact-finding body, helps us to see ourselves in judicial matters statistically.

Traffic cases in the last fiscal year, which ended June 30, totaled 222. Of this number 163 defendants pleaded guilty and the other 59 forfeited bail. There were no traffic trials.

Other misdemeanors totaled in arrests 65, with 59 pleading guilty. Four stood trial, and of these three were acquitted and one convicted. Two cases were dismissed.

Fines of all kinds totaled $1677.-50; bail forfeitures $138. Total of the two, $1815.50.

Since this year is the first time that the Judicial Council has interested its self in the collections a comparison with other years is not available so far as duplicate reports are concerned. But some of the other figures go back.

Traffic cases one year back totaled 145; two years back, 147. With 222 for the last year the increase was substantial. Other misdemeanors one year back numbered 39; two years back, 29. With 65 for the last year the increase in two years means more than a doubling.

Increase in traffic citations may be explained by greater activity of the Highway Patrol, which now has more officers in this county. Greater number of other misdemeanors seems to mean more troublemakers.

We have more and more industries. A proportion of industrial workers get drunk and become disorderly as a form of recreation. If we encourage the industries for sake of business we should expect to pay this sort of price.

Saratoga is being called "Saratoga the Beautiful." Campbell might be called "Campbell the Booming." If Saratoga is more beautiful, we are more colorful.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON

UNPRECEDENTED AGENCY

Washington.—This is a story about a remarkable government lending agency. Instead of losing money, it has made a great deal of it—105 million dollars to be exact.

The phenomenon is the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation, created in 1934 by the New Deal when Henry Wallace was secretary of agriculture. The man chiefly responsible for the success of FFMC is a professor. He is Dr. William I. Myers, dean of Cornell university's agricultural school, and the first head of the agency.

The FFMC bill was introduced in congress as an emergency measure to bolster the depression-racked farm economy. It was frankly admitted the corporation, probably would lose a great deal of money. But it was held the measure was necessary to halt the flood of foreclosures and bankruptcies then engulfing farmers.

To raise the corporation's capital. Dr. Myers embarked on a bold gamble. He bought hundreds of millions of dollars worth of 4 per cent interest Federal Land bank bonds with government-guaranteed 3 and 3¼ per cent FFMC bonds. The profit in the interest was designed to offset the risk involved in lending to mortgage-loaded farmers.

In the 13 years of its operations, FFMC has loaned a total of $1,200,000,000. The severe drouth year of 1936 was the peak, with 837 million dollars in outstanding loans. The war saved the corporation.

More the 250,000 farmers paid off their mortgages in full. In the past six years, FFMC has collected 500 million dollars in repayments.

The corporation is starting to liquidate. This will take time as there is still 135 million dollars in outsanding loans. Corporation officials are hoping debtor farmers will pay up while agriculture is still prosperous.

TEST BAllOT

Political chiefs of both parties have their eyes glued on what happens in Cleveland, Ohio, September 30. The big, Midwestern industrial metropolis holds a mayoralty primary that day that may be a significant portent of the 1948 voting trend.

Both parties have strong candidates. The Democrats, popular Mayor Thomas Burk, who won reelection in 1945 by a big majority the Republicans, Eliot Ness, who gained fame a decade ago as an anti-graft crusading safety director.

Ohio went Republican both in the 1944 presidental election and in the 1946 state election. However, Cuyahoga county, in which Cleveland is located, has a preponderant labor constituency. Also, it is the heaviest populated balloting record.

So what happens in the Burke-Ness mayoralty battle is of great moment to the GOP and Democrats. That's why they are not only watching it closly, but quietly putting a lot of money intb the fight.

ECONOMY PROVES COSTLY

A shocking instance of the pennywise and pound-foolish economy of the recent session of congress is shown in the tragic toll taken by forest fires in Alaska this summer. The Alaskan fire control service asked for a renewal of its $170,000 annual appropriation but the house refused to grant the money. The house appropriations committee urged this refusal on the ground that the expenditure was unnecessary.

The more liberal senate eased the blow a little by voting a few thousand dollars to maintain a meager skeleton crew—which has proved practically helpless in the current disaster.

Veterans' News

World War II veterans entering any type of farm training under the G.I. Bill are now being enrolled in training courses which combine classroom instruction with practical farming and, in some cases, allow the veterans a maximum training period of four years, the V.A. reports.

Known as institutional on-farm training, the program is considered full time training under the provisions of a new law recently signed by the President.

The two-year limitation on the old farm training programs will not apply to the new program. The training courses of the 1,610 California veterans enrolled under the old institutional on-farm and 291 on-the-job farm training courses will be reviewed by the state of California. Those that meet the new qualifications will be converted to the new institutional on-farm training program.

The training period will be as long as necessary to meet the veterans' eligibility, which is roughly one year plus a period equal to the time spent in the armed forces. The maximum for training is four years.

Veterans in full time institutional on-farm training courses under the G.I. Bill will receive full subsistence allowances of $65 a month for a single veteran and $90 for a veteran with dependents.

In no case shall compensation for productive labor, plus subsistence, exceed $175 for a single veteran or $200 a month for a veteran with dependents.

The institutional on-farm training courses will be considered full time training when it consists of at least 200 hours of classroom instruction at an accredited educational or training institution, combined with supedvised work experience on a farm or other agricultural establishment.

Question: How much time do I have to complete my education under the G.I. Bill?

Answer: Your education must be completed nine years after July 25, 1947.

Question: What is the maximum length of training a disabled veteran can get under Public Law 16?

Answer: The maximum is four years. However, V.D. may extend the time if factors in any case warrant an additional period for rehabilitation.

HARD and heavy work is underway today along the upper reaches of the Feather, Mokelumne and Yuba Rivers. Road, foundation and tunneling crews are now rushing work to beat the rains and snows of winter.

Here are the new plants, their cost and capacity:

These new hydroelectric plants are part of the greatest construction program in the history of the P. G. and E.—a $350 million expansion plan that will add 1,000,000 electric horsepower to the company's system by 1951.

Burial To Be Held Here Today For George Leonard Husted Of Campbell

Funeral services for George Leonard Husted, member of a well-known pioneer Campbell family, who died September 10 in Wallingford, Conn., will be held here at 2 p.m. today. Mr. Husted's death occurred during a trailer trip he and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Miller were taking across the continent—a trip to which the two couples had been looking forward for many years. They had toured Canada and Nova Scotia and were planning to go to Florida before returning home about Christmas.

For many years Husted, a fruit-grower, had operated a ranch on San Jose-Los Gatos Road near Hamilton Ave. He was born in Oneida, Ill., Dec. 29, 1878, and came to this area with his parents, Leonard Bushnell and Frances Brown Husted, in 1888.

The family settled on Pierce Road, near Saratoga. George Husted atended Santa Clara Valley schools and was married to Florence Smith in 1901. He leaves three children from this marriage: George Edwin Husted, San Carlos; Arthur Bushnell Husted, Los Angeles, and Barbara Husted Lambertson, Montrose.

Husted married Mildred Keesling in 1915, and leaves one son by this marriage, Norman Keesling Husted, residing at the family home.

Husted was a nephew of the late Judge F. B. Brown and a brother of Dr. F. R. Husted of San Jose, Dr. Guy B. Husted of Modesto, and Blanche Chilton of San Jose, all of whom he outlived.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Leon S. Miller, Los Gatos; Mrs. Ralph H. Hyde and Mrs. Herbert M. Shadle of Campbell, and one brother, Ralph A. Husted of Saratoga.

He was a member of Orchard City Grange and held the office of executive committeeman.

Kiwanis Club Hears District Governor

Before an appreciative audience at this week's Kiwanis luncheon meeting Dr. Norm Abbott, Governor of the California and Nevada district, recounted many interesting experiences gained from 5000 miles of travel in visiting Kiwanis clubs around his circuit.

He was accompanied on his Campbell visit by Cal Kirby, lieutenant governor for the district.

Clarence (Swede) Nelson was program chairman of the day. He had as his guest Bud Winters of San Jose State College. Bud very ably told of the trials and tribulations of an assistant football coach. He concluded his remarks with an invitation for all to see the opening game of the season with University of San Francisco Friday night, Sept 19.

Swede Nelson introduced Campbell Union high school's new coach, Art Swenson. Mr. Swenson was enthusiastic over Campbell's prospects, in particular praising the type and spirit of the material he has to work with at Campbell. Present prospects are for a very well-balanced team.

Last guest speaker of the meeting was the well-known pharmacist, "Smiling" Bill Means, who is also trainer for Campbells' athletes. Bill gave some interesting side-lights on the training and conditioning of the boys.

Next Tuesday's meeting will have as its guest speaker Dwight Bentel of San Jose State College who will speak on Journalism.
